SUPERVISED RELEASE IN ALL
CRIMINAL CASES

ORDER

After due consideration by the Judges of this District, it is hereby ORDERED that in addition to the Standard Conditions of Supervised Release and Probation promulgated by the Administrative Office of U.S. Courts (National Form AO 245B), the following five conditions are forthwith adopted as standard conditions of probation and supervised release for all defendants sentenced in criminal cases in the District:

1. If the offender is unemployed, the probation officer may direct the offender to register and remain active with Workforce West Virginia;
2. Offenders shall submit to random urinalysis or any drug screening method whenever the same is deemed appropriate by the probation officer and shall participate in a substance abuse program as directed by the probation officer. Offenders shall not use any method or device to evade a drug screen;
3. As directed by the probation officer, the defendant will make co-payments for drug testing and drug treatment services at rates determined by the probation officer in accordance with a Court-approved schedule based on ability to pay and availability of third-party payments;
4. A term of community service is imposed on every offender on supervised release or probation. Fifty hours of community service is imposed on every offender for each year the offender is on supervised release or probation. The obligation for community service is waived if the offender remains fully employed or actively seeks such employment throughout the year;

5. The defendant shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon.

This Order supersedes the Standing Order entered December 17, 1998, re: Adoption of Standard Conditions of Probation and Release in All Criminal Cases.

It is further ORDERED that copies of this Court's Order shall be filed and kept at the Clerk's Office in all divisions of the District, that copies of said Order be made available to attorneys practicing at the bar of this Court, and that a copy be forwarded to Charles T.
