HUNTINGTON, W.Va. — Photographs from the Ohio Valley Camera Club are currently on display in the Sidney L. Christie Federal Building and U.S. Courthouse at 845 Fifth Avenue in downtown Huntington. Nature scenes, urban landscapes, and new interpretations of everyday objects are among the images greeting visitors in the lobby of the historic building that houses the federal courthouse and other government agencies.

The Ohio Valley Camera Club is celebrating its 60th anniversary in 2018, and its mission is “to associate for the mutual enjoyment of photography and to encourage the advancement of its members in their knowledge and practice of the science and art of photography through friendly competitions and quality educational programs.” For additional information about the Ohio Valley Camera Club, e-mail ovccwv12@gmail.com.

Parking for the photography exhibit is available at metered spaces near the federal building or at the municipal parking garage beside Jim’s Spaghetti on Fifth Avenue. Visitors are required to pass through a security checkpoint and present photo identification. The exhibit will be on display through the end of November, 2018.
