

INSTRUCTIONS FOR FILING A CIVIL ACTION FOR VIOLATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS (BIVENS ACTION)

Pursuant to Bivens v. Six Unknown Named Agents of Federal Bureau of Narcotics, 403 U.S. 388 (1971), a plaintiff may bring a civil rights suit against federal officials in their individual capacity for damages caused by constitutional torts under color of their authority.

Do NOT use this form to apply for a writ of habeas corpus or to challenge the sentence you received in federal court. Separate forms are available for these actions. The Clerk of Court can send you a copy upon request, or one should be available in the law library of your institution.

THE RIGHT COURT AND THE RIGHT DEFENDANTS

You may file your complaint in the United States District Court for the Southern District of West Virginia only if one or more of the defendants is located in the Southern District, or if the events of which you complain occurred in the Southern District. File complaints against state personnel under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. File complaints against federal personnel on this Bivens action form. Do NOT use 42 U.S.C. § 1983 forms to apply for a writ of habeas corpus or to challenge the sentence you received in state or federal court.

EXHAUSTION

You may not bring an action challenging conditions until you have completely exhausted available administrative remedies, including any grievance system. See 42 U.S.C. Section 1997e(a); 28 C.F.R. Part 542 – Administrative Remedy; and Program Statement 1330.13 – Administrative Remedy Program.

SCREENING/DISMISSAL

The Court is required to screen your complaint and to dismiss your case at any time if it determines the following:

1. You failed to exhaust all administrative remedies; or
2. Your case is frivolous, or malicious, or fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted, or seeks money from a defendant who is immune from such relief; or
3. You are requesting to file your case without paying the filing fee and your allegation of poverty is untrue.

THREE-DISMISSAL RULE

If you have, while incarcerated, brought a civil action or appeal in federal court three or more times in the past that was dismissed with prejudice because it was (1) frivolous, or (2) malicious, or (3) failed to state a claim on which relief may be granted, you cannot bring a new civil action or appeal a judgment in a civil action without pre-payment of the filing fee in full. The only exception to this is if you are in “imminent danger of serious physical injury.” See 28 U.S.C. Section 1915(g).

COMPENSATORY DAMAGES

If your case is allowed to proceed and you are awarded compensatory damages against a federal officer, before payment of any compensatory damages, the government will attempt to notify victims of the crime for which you were convicted, because you must first pay all pending restitution orders before any part of the award goes to you.

FILING FEE (Attachments B, C and D)

When you bring a civil action in federal court, you must pay the full amount of the filing and administrative fees in the amount of $402.00 ($350.00 filing fee and a $52.00 administrative fee if not granted in forma pauperis status) or apply to proceed without prepayment of the filing fee. If you have the funds to pay the filing fee, send a money order payable to Clerk, U.S. District Court in the amount of $402.00.

If you cannot pay the full fee at the time of filing, you must apply to proceed without prepayment of fees. To file an application to proceed without prepayment of fees, you must submit the following forms: Application to Proceed Without Prepayment of Fees and Costs form (Attachment B), Consent to Collection of Fees from Trust Account form (Attachment C), and the Prisoner Trust Account Report (Attachment D) with ledger sheets from your prisoner trust account which reflect your account's activity for the past six months. Failure to submit all of these forms may result in dismissal of your complaint.

Filing Fee Procedures

After receiving your complaint, the Court will assess and collect an initial partial filing fee of the greater of the following:

1. 20% of the average monthly deposits to your prisoner account for the past six months; or
2. 20% of the average monthly balance in your prisoner account for the past six months.

After paying this initial partial fee, you must pay 20% of the preceding month's income received in your prisoner account. The agency having custody of you will send these payments to the Clerk of Court when your prisoner account has more than $10.00 in it, until the full filing fee is paid. See 28 U.S.C. Section 1915(b).

See below additional important instructions regarding your in forma pauperis documents:

1. You must verify or certify the correctness of the contents of the above-referenced documents. You should make sure that all answers are true and correct.
2. The Clerk does not provide copies unless a fee of $0.50 per page is paid. Permission to proceed without prepayment of fees or costs does not entitle you to free copies of documents.
