PRETRIAL ORDER #107
(Emergency Motion for Protective Order)

Pending before the court is the Emergency Motion for Protective Order filed by nonparties, Daniel J. Christensen and MedStar Funding, LC (“Movants”). (ECF No. 745). Movants seek a protective order staying the deposition of Christensen until resolution by a Texas court of an alleged conflict of interest involving counsel for American Medical Systems, Inc. (“AMS”).¹ Movants argue that Christensen will be inconvenienced if required to sit for more than one deposition, which is likely to occur if Bard is permitted to schedule Christensen’s deposition before the Texas court has ruled on the conflict of interest. C. R. Bard, Inc. filed a response in opposition to the proposed stay. (ECF No. 750). On January 29, 2014, the court heard oral argument on the motion.

Defendant Bard represented to the court that it was not involved in the conflict of interest and did not receive confidential information from counsel for AMS. Bard argued that given current docket control orders, it wished to promptly proceed with Christensen’s deposition. Therefore, Bard asked the court to deny the motion for protective order.

¹ Mr. Christensen’s deposition was scheduled and cross-noticed by defendants in five multidistrict litigations (“MDL”) involving pelvic mesh products, including AMS, Bard, Boston Scientific Corp., Ethicon, Inc., and Coloplast, Corp. The alleged conflict of interest involves only counsel in the AMS MDL.

Having considered the matter, and noting that Movants supplied no evidence or argument indicating that Bard has received confidential information, and further noting that the deposition of Christensen has been pending for several months, the court DENIES the Emergency Motion for Protective Order. Counsel for Bard is ORDERED to work with Movants and counsel for Boston Scientific Corp, Ethicon, Inc., and Coloplast Corp. (Mentor) to select a convenient date and time in the near future for the deposition of Daniel J. Christensen.

The court DIRECTS the Clerk to file a copy of this order in 2:10-md-2187 and it shall apply to each member related case previously transferred to, removed to, or filed in this district, which includes counsel in all member cases up to and including civil action number 2:14-cv-05457.
